

GROUP 2: ASSETS WORTH MORE THAN $61,000

Workshop 3: Our Choices

Ismael Beah

I am 26 years old and am a former child soldier from Sierra Leone. I have come to the Central African Republic with UNICEF to help negotiate the release of children from armed groups. I am a UNICEF Advocate for Children in Conflict. I was forcibly recruited when I was only 13 years old.

“I want to share with my experience with these children to let them know it is possible to reclaim your humanity after such trauma.”

Sierra Leone?

How many child soldiers are there worldwide?

How does his story help other children to recover?

What supports do children need to overcome the experience of war?
